

PROSPECTS OF EARLY PEACE IS MUCH BRIGHTER

Terms of Treaty Will Be Ready For Ger- many April 25

(By the Associated Press.)

A sharp forward stride toward an early peace has been taken. The council of four has formally invited Germany to send delegates to Versailles April 25, there to hear the verdict of the Entente allies and associated powers and the sentence they have imposed upon her for having set the world afire.

The general opinion in Paris seems to be that Germany may endeavor to haggle over the hard terms and to secure a diminution in their severity, but that within a relatively short time the delegates will bow to the inevitable and sign the compact. Advice from London says the terms of the peace treaty will not be made public until they have been delivered to the Germans.

The expectation in Paris is that President Wilson will remain in France until the peace treaty is signed and bring back the completed document to the United States.

The Adriatic situation as it affects Italy and Jugo-Slavia is now the chief point under consideration by the council of four. Arthur J. Balfour, the British foreign minister, is acting as alternate for David Lloyd George, who is in England.

Pending the conclusion of the peace agreement Germany is to be permitted to purchase surplus stocks of raw materials. This has been decided by the economic council. The decision will permit Germany to commence manufacturing to begin the accumulation of the money to settle the financial claims of the allies. The reparations commission is investigating the financial situation of Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey and their ability to pay war claims.

Situation in Bavaria. Troubles continue in Bavaria. The communists in Munich again hold the upper hand, according to reports. There has been further heavy fighting in the streets of the city. Reinforced by loyal troops of the Hoffman government used artillery against the communist stronghold, but are declared to have been defeated. Many persons are reported to have been killed or wounded.

The strike in Danzig has ended. The strike of the bank clerks in Berlin is in full swing and clerks in Mannheim and Chemnitz have joined in a similar movement.

Considerable fighting has taken place on the Russian fronts. The Bolsheviks have suffered severe defeats on the Archangel and Murmansk coast sectors but in the south the Rumanians have been compelled by the Bolsheviks to retreat over a wide front in Bessarabia. The Ukrainian peasant army also has been forced to cede ground to the Bolsheviks.

Secretary of War. Baker, who has arrived in Paris, is the subject of the plans that are afoot for the rapid repatriation of the American soldiers in Europe. During the present month 275,000 of them will come home and in May 250,000 more. In June it is expected to transport 300,000 men, and this number is to be maintained monthly until the 1,400,000 soldiers are back.

Terms of Treaty. Germany by the terms of the treaty will be called upon to pay 1,000,000,000 gold marks, which at the pre-war rate of exchange would be equivalent to $23,820,000,000. Of this immense sum, there must be paid within two years an amount equal to $4,764,000,000 and during the next thirty twice that sum must be turned over to the allies. A commission will determine when and how the remaining $9,528,000,000 of the reparations fund must be paid.

Will Organize Illinois Chamber of Commerce. Quincy, Ill., April 15.—The Quincy Chamber of Commerce, thru President M. Edward Fawcett, issued a call today for a meeting of delegates from all commercial clubs, civic organizations and industrial organizations to meet in Quincy June 16 to organize the Illinois Chamber of Commerce.

Riotous disorders continue in Germany. In Bavaria there are indications that the government led by Premier Hoffman, successor to Kurt Eisner is gaining ground and that the soviet regime, which threatened to take over complete control, may be ousted. In Berlin there have been riots and troops have fired on street vendors who are alleged to have been dealing in stolen goods. In the industrial region of Westphalia the strike continues, but no further fighting has been reported.

A rather disquieting situation has arisen in India, where there have been disorders of a serious character. In the northwestern corner of the peninsula have been the scenes of riots, while at Ahmedabad further south, mobs have burned government buildings. The situation in Egypt is reported to be in control of the military forces commanded by General Allenby.

275,000 Troops Will Be Brought Home This Month

PARIS, April 15.—(By The Associated Press.)—American troops to the number of 275,000 are returning to the United States from Europe, during the present month, Newton D. Baker, secretary of war said today on his arrival in Paris from Brest. In May he added, the number will fall to 250,000 because of lack of transports, but in June the number probably will rise to 300,000 which will be maintained as the monthly rate until all of the 1,400,000 men still here are returned.

The secretary said that if any agreement should be reached by which American troops would participate in the defense of the Rhine indefinitely, undoubtedly only soldiers used would be those who volunteered for such service. Mr. Baker said he was in France to participate in the work of the American liquidation committee. He expects to go to Coblenz and the former fighting front with General Pershing and to return to the United States within ten days.

The secretary of war declared that no decision had been reached as to what disposition would be made of the docks, warehouses and other permanent improvements constructed in France by the United States government. He said that large quantities of captured guns and other war materials would be taken to the United States as trophies. Much American artillery equipment will be returned but no decision yet has been made as to the disposal of automobiles and motor trucks.

Belgium, the secretary said is to get large quantities of cotton goods and foodstuffs from the American army.

SENSATION SPRUNG IN "SLUSH FUND" INQUIRY

ALBANY, N. Y., April 15.—A sensation was sprung at the close of today's inquiry before the senate judiciary committee into the half million dollar "slush fund" allegations of Senator George F. Thompson when Richard H. Burke, the man Thompson said suggested the money, charged the Niagara senator with having admitted that he had been "short $15,000 in some Lockport school or church fund."

Senator Thompson later said he had no knowledge of what Burke was talking about and that the whole affair was one of "Burke's imagination."

This development followed denials by former Governor Whitman, and President Theodore P. Shonts and James L. Quackenbush, general attorney for the Interborough Rapid Transit company of Thompson's testimony implicating them in the slush fund story.

Former Governor Whitman categorically denied that he, as Thompson had testified, had asked the senator on behalf of President Shonts to withdraw his opposition to the Carson-Marton trolley rate bill. He denied that he had mentioned the governor's name, except incidentally, while they were discussing the political situation.

PRICE OF COFFEE WILL REMAIN HIGH
CLEVELAND, April 15.—The price of coffee is not going to be cheaper for a while according to a statement by Carl W. Brand, of Cleveland, president of the National Coffee Roasters' Association, who presided at a sectional meeting here today of coffee roasters from Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Indiana and southern Michigan.

Coffee has advanced in price on account of a severe frost in Brazil, Brand said, and he would not be surprised to see good coffee retail at fifty cents a pound and perhaps higher in the near future.

WILL ORGANIZE ILLINOIS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

PRESENT SYSTEM OF U. S. MILITARY JUSTICE FAVORED

Commander of Rain- bow Division Has No Alterations

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The present system of military justice has no radical alteration in the opinion of Major General Charles T. Menoher, commander of the 42nd (Rainbow) division. Appearing today before the committee of the American Bar Association, which is conducting an inquiry, General Menoher said that with some elaboration of regulations to make the system more easily understandable to officers serving only for a war emergency, he speaking from experience saw no necessity of changing court martial practice and procedure.

"I do not recall," he said, "that in this controversy it has ever been claimed that any innocent man was found guilty. With regard to the length of sentences, however, it is another matter."

"We always felt that adjustment of sentences would be made after the war."

General Menoher was asked what objection he saw to creating a system of enlisted juries to try cases of enlisted men.

"I believe it would work," he said, adding that he had never heard the suggestion before and was not prepared to present a studied reply.

The officer also approved a suggestion that offenses of a common law character might be referred to the federal courts except in actual war zones, but was positive that no such transfer of strictly military cases should be made.

So far as the existing military justice system goes, General Menoher said, there is no escape from the personal element among the officers applying it.

Colonel Charles D. Heron, who commanded the 313th field artillery and later was chief of staff of the 18th division, also told the committee that the present military system was adequate but that its success depended upon the intelligence of the officers. "The military justice system is essential that justice be given the men," Colonel Heron said, because morale depended upon it, and morale was what won battles. Some cases of seemingly excessive sentences within his experience, he added, were easily explained by the facts. Ten or fifteen years imprisonment for a week's absence without leave certainly appeared heavy, he asserted, but cases of this kind he had noted in France were those of men whose week of absence kept them out of a fight, into which their unit was going. The rear lines of all armies, he said, were filled with men wandering up and down in search of their companions but never quite finding them. These were "skulker" cases which formed a separate problem he thought.

HOOVER REPORTS ON RELIEF WORK

PARIS, April 15.—Herbert Hoover, director-general of food relief in Europe for the allied governments and Lieutenants Colonel Robert E. Olds, Reg. Cross commissioner for Europe, have issued the following statement: "There is no basis of truth whatever in the report appearing in some of the press that the American Red Cross has been asked by the United States, or by any other government, to undertake the relief of Europe or to fight Bolshevism with food."

"The American Red Cross has pledged to the extent of its resources in endeavoring to bring relief in the form of medical and hospital supplies, clothing and food for the sick and to such populations as it can reach fighting the famine of Europe is an affair of governments and cannot possibly be undertaken by the American Red Cross."

ASSEMBLY LAW UPHOLD

Springfield, Ill., April 15.—The supreme court last night affirmed the validity of the law passed by the fiftieth general assembly, bringing under state control approximately five hundred state banks. The supreme court sustained the decision of the Sangamon county circuit court which found the issues for the state but dismissed a bill for injunction filed by Louis G. Spies of Kankakee to prevent ratification of the measure by popular vote. Spies then carried the proceeding to the supreme court where the law was held constitutional today.

KILLS WIFE, WOUNDS CHILDREN, THEN SUICIDES.

Chicago, April 15.—Brooding over the verdict of a physician who had told him that his wife had but sixty days to live, William Marwitz, assistant postmaster of Hinsdale, a suburb, today shot and killed his wife, fatally wounded his two-year-old son and six-year-old daughter and then committed suicide. The children died in a hospital.

UNFAVORABLE WEATHER AGAIN HOLDS UP FLIGHT

ST. JOHN, N. F., April 15.—Unfavorable weather conditions again held up today the attempt of Harry G. Hawker, Australian aviator, to make the first flight across the Atlantic and gave his rival, Captain Frederick P. Raynham, the British flier, virtually an even chance to "hop off" at the same time.

While Hawker chafed at the elements which have held up his flight for five days, Captain Raynham's hastily assembled party went up for a trial flight and was pronounced ready for the trip.

Captain Raynham discussed with Hawker today the question of which should carry the first official Atlantic aerial mail, which was turned over to Hawker several days ago.

It was virtually agreed that in the event of a simultaneous start the two aviators would decide by tossing the coin.

The drizzling rain of this morning turned during the afternoon to a swirling snow-fall which continued tonight.

The weather charts indicated that in addition to the local snow storm there were areas of low atmospheric pressure on both sides of the Atlantic and a belt of cross-winds in between.

It was learned tonight that plans for the flight of a large Handley-Page bombing plane from Harbor Grace are being made. The plane was reported to be either on the way from England or about to be shipped.

CHILEAN MISSION VISITS WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The members of special Chilean commercial mission were taken today by representatives of the United States government to visit the White House, Capitol Library of Congress, bureau of engraving and printing and the bureau of standards. Tomorrow they will visit Mount Vernon.

Ambassador Henry B. Fletcher, former United States ambassador to Chile, has been placed in charge of the entertainment of the Chilean party. The mission will leave Friday or Saturday for New York where the itinerary of American cities will be made up. They intended to spend two or three months in the United States.

FIGHT OVER KEITH WILL

Boston, April 15.—Allegations that A. Paul Keith and Edward F. Albee agreed in December, 1919, to give John F. Cronin, a lawyer, one third of the $15,000,000 estate of B. F. Keith, the vaudeville theatrical proprietor, if he should succeed in preventing Mr. Keith from disinheriting his son Paul, are made in a bill in equity filed by Mr. Cronin in the superior court today, which seeks to have the court order enforcement of the alleged agreement.

JUDGMENT AFFIRMED.

Springfield, Ill., April 15.—Judgment of the trial court in Peoria county which found William Dare, business agent for the painters' union, guilty of the slaying of John J. Schwarz, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

Diner Assails U.S. Flag At New York Banquet

NEW YORK, April 15.—A sensational incident marked the close of an address by United States Senator George E. Chamberlain at dinner of the Sphinx club at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight. His peroration was a poem, "The American Flag." As the Oregon senator recited the closing lines, one of the diners in the rear of the grand ball room rose from his seat and shouted:

"To Hell with the American flag."

Diners started toward the man, but Edward V. Mitchell, vice-president of the Texas & Oklahoma Oil company, was the first to reach him. Swinging with his right arm, Mr. Mitchell landed a clean blow on the chin of the disturber and knocked him down.

Several friends seated with the man attempted to interfere and there was a lively scuffle in which Mr. Mitchell himself was struck in the face. The disturber was rushed out a side door before any serious damage was done. Edmund D. Gibbs, former president of the club, and Robert S. Scarborough, treasurer, who immediately began an investigation, declared they had been unable to determine the man's identity but they would not rest until they had done so.

Several members of the club which is composed of advertising men, searched the hotel lobby and bar room for the disturber but learned he had been spirited away in a taxicab.

"That fellow is mighty lucky he is not in jail," said T. B. Gibbs. "While Senator Chamberlain was speaking I heard the fellow making remarks ridiculing the address. I went over and remonstrated with him, but his friends seemed to be in a belligerent mood and I left rather than create a scene."

Senator Chamberlain declared the victory of America and the allies was the result of organization of man-power and of industrial power. He characterized the selective service law as the greatest piece of democratic legislation ever enacted.

HARDING'S CASE WILL BE DECIDED TODAY

DES MOINES, April 15.—Impeachment or censure of Governor W. L. Harding for his part in the Rathbun pardon case will be determined upon tomorrow in the Iowa house of representatives tonight that final action would come up late in the day.

The fight will come on the minority report of the house judiciary committee, as this will be taken up first. If this report is accepted, the majority report asking impeachment would not be acted upon directly.

Factional lines were taut tonight in preparation for the fight expected, and although the Harding forces continued confident the attempt at impeachment would fail, it was expected the vote would be comparatively close.

Representatives Weaver, Gillenwater, Alderman, Springer and Harshington are expected to lead the fight for impeachment, while Representatives Rogers, Temple and Moore are looked to for the main defensive arguments.

The committee reports regarding Attorney General H. M. Haver will be taken after the Harding matter has been disposed of. The majority report recommends Haver's complete exoneration while the minority report asks that he be censured.

FRICKE'S CONFESSION READ TO JURY

NEW YORK, April 15.—An alleged confession of Albert Paul Fricke, describing in detail his connection with German agents in the United States, was read today to a jury in federal court before which he is on trial on a charge of treason.

According to the doctrine, the defendant acted as financial agent for Carl Rodiger, alias Herman Wessels, under instructions to finance him to the limit of Fricke's own resources.

Rodiger told Fricke, the alleged confession stated, that he was to "investigate if it is possible to put Irish recruits on British warships for the purpose of placing bombs on the ships," and was to "place bombs" on British freight ships leaving New York harbor, adding "that he would pay from $10,000 to $50,000 for each ship destroyed."

GERMANS DEPOSIT MONEY FOR FOOD

COBLENZ, Sunday, April 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—Seven million marks were deposited on Saturday at headquarters for the third army by the Germans to pay for food supplies for civilians in the area occupied by United States forces. During last week nine million marks were deposited for this purpose by the Germans.

The first food train started from France this morning, its cars being loaded from American army depots. The supplies bought by the Germans include three hundred tons of bacon, three hundred tons of rice, 1,300 tons of flour, 100 tons of corned beef and 22 tons of evaporated milk. The first shipments have been sent to Treves, Coblenz, Neuwied and Montabaur and distributed thru-out the district at uniform prices.

SUBSCRIBE TO VICTORY LOAN AND KILL BOLSHIEVISM

Secretary Glass De- clares in New York Address

NEW YORK, April 15.—Wide-spread distribution of the Fifth and final Liberty Loan—the $4,500,000,000 "Victory" Loan—was urged by Carter Glass, secretary of the treasury, in an address here tonight before 4,000 loan campaigners of the New York Federal Reserve District.

"You want to give it wide-spread distribution," he said "because, in my belief, the surest way to shoot down Bolshevism is to let the people of this country have a material interest in the government. You want to do it in order to inculcate the lesson of saving and of thrift."

An additional reason for absorption of the loan by the people rather than by banks, Secretary Glass said, was the greater amount of the loan the banks were called upon to finance, the more would their ability be impaired to meet the demands for capital for commerce and industry.

"We should not hesitate a moment," he declared. "We are American boys illustrated the heroism and valor of this nation upon the battlefield, so American business men and business men should illustrate the patriotism of peace in a different way, and will do it."

"We call this a victory loan," he continued, "and it is that. But I think it might as well have been called a thanksgiving loan. I am appealing to my fellowmen to give thanks to God that the war was, thru valor and spirit of our American nation, kept 3,000 miles away."

Sims Also Speaks.

Rear Admiral William S. Sims, who commanded the American fleet during the war, also addressed the meeting, urging the workers to "carry on" until the last bond has been sold.

"A loan over-subscribed means to the man at the front 'go to it, we are backing you; we will see you thru,'" he said.

The admiral devoted the greater part of his address to recounting stories of the sea, recalling his "wholly inexcusable Guild hall speech" in 1910, when he declared that the United States would "not permit the other branch of the Anglo-Jaxon race go down to defeat without helping them."

Shortly after that "indiscretion" he said, he had made a secret report to the Navy department expressing the opinion of British naval men he had met that war could not be delayed more than four years.

Admiral Sims said he wanted to correct the popular impression "that we were doing the whole business."

"As a matter of fact," he said, "we had only a small proportion of the anti-submarine forces there. Around the British Isles Great Britain had about 3,000 when we had less than 200."

Lowden Issues Proclamation.

Chicago, April 15.—Governor Lowden today issued the following Victory Loan proclamation: "The war is won. In winning it, heavy obligations were incurred. These must be met. When the drives for Liberty Loans were on, we were asked to only to 'give out' money but also our sons to both demands. And now we are asked only to give something of the wealth our brave soldiers saved for us. Shall we answer less freely when only our money is asked than we did when our money and our boys both were needed by the government?"

"We must pay our debts incurred in the war. To do this bonds must be sold. The more widely we distribute these bonds the easier will readjustment of business become. We therefore urge our people to respond to their country's call with the same open hands with which they responded in time of war. We may properly regard our subscriptions now as a thanksgiving offering for the peace which has come."

One of the striking features of the record is a reduction of 237 in the number of missing, brought about largely by the identification of dead and the return of prisoners.

LLOYD-GEORGE FACES POLITICAL CRISIS

LONDON, April 15.—(By The Associated Press.)—It has fallen to David Lloyd George, as has fallen few of his predecessors in the premier's office, to meet and grapple with highly charged political and personal crises.

The prime minister left the Paris conference yesterday for a brief meeting with members of the House of Commons. How he will acquit himself is a subject which is agitating politicians.

The purpose of the visit is to explain the government's policy and his personal part in the conference. He will confront a House of Commons which contains a sharply critical faction, and indirectly, will reply to the critical section of the press. The tenor of the criticism is that he has been too lenient towards Germany and has relented from his election pledges to make Germany pay all the costs of the war and to punish the former emperor.

A number of London papers accuse him of having been hypnotized to give away the interest of France and Great Britain.

The demand for seats in the House of Commons is great, since it became known that he would speak on these topics.

As the council of four has decreed that the terms of the peace treaty should not be published until after they have been presented to the Germans, it seems that the premier will have a most delicate diplomatic feat to form in satisfying the curiosity of the whole country and parrying his critics.

Mr. Lloyd George scored a tactical point yesterday by the statement that the premier would conclude the debate. His critics had expected him to make explanations first, and that they would thereby be given ammunition with which to bombard him.

ROAD BOND ISSUE HELD AS CONSTITUTIONAL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 15.—In an announcement made on the bench, the supreme court late today declared the issue of 1917 authorizing the state to issue $60,000,000 of bonds for good roads to be constitutional. An opinion will be given later.

Suit to test the validity of the sixty million dollar bond issue act was filed in the Sangamon county circuit court by John W. Mitchell, a banker, of Mount Carmel. Constitutionality of the law was upheld and the suit was dismissed for want of equity in order to make possible a friendly appeal to the supreme court.

KING OF ST. LOUIS GAMBLERS DEAD

ST. LOUIS, April 15.—"Kid" Becker, known as the "king of St. Louis gamblers," who was shot by highwaymen last night, died at a hospital early today as a result of the wound.

Becker was 36 years old and from boyhood followed the races. It is said he had won and lost fortunes.

He recently paid a fine of $5,000 for operating a gambling house in Madison county, Illinois. At the time it was said Becker entered the court room with $200,000 and was prepared to pay any amount assessed against him. He is said to have left a large estate.

WILSON EXPECTS TO RETURN HOME WITH TREATY

Will Remain Until His Work Is Car- ried Out

PARIS, April 15.—(By The Associated Press.)—Now that the Germans have been called to Versailles April 25, the indications are that the proceedings may move with such dispatch that President Wilson can remain for the signing of the treaty, and thus be able to take back the completed document.

This was the view of the president's intimates today when their attention was called to the reports in French papers that his departure had been fixed for April 23. It was declared that no such intention had

THE NEWLY CHOSEN SERVANTS OF THE PEOPLE

Jacksonville is just entering upon a new order of things in its municipal government. The city officers elected yesterday will enter formally upon their duties May 1.

When E. E. Crabtree acceded to the suggestion of friends some weeks ago and announced his willingness to become a candidate for mayor on a no-salary basis, the plan very speedily attracted state-wide interest. General newspapers and financial journals commented upon the local situation. It soon developed the fact that the plan was not entirely new and that several cities during the past years where finances were in a bad way had found citizens willing to serve during an emergency period on a no-salary basis. That the plan called forth local support was indicated by the results yesterday, for the city clerk, city treasurer and six out of eight aldermen were elected on a no-salary platform.

In the early days of the primary campaign there was some little misunderstanding of this no-salary plan and the thought that "the laborer is worthy of his hire" found many followers and the often expressed statement was heard that the city officers should not be expected to serve without pay. But within a short time people looked upon the facts in their right relationship and understood that the suggestion of no-salary was quite in accord with the spirit of the times and especially so with the actual financial status of this city.

Mr. Crabtree made it at once clear that, if elected, he would have no thought of insisting upon aldermen serving without pay unless it was to their own liking. The question of pay, in other words, was a matter for individual wish or conscience. Those generally familiar with the city's present financial condition and who know about the great increase in cost of operations of the city's business, understand that the incoming council faces no small or easy task. It will be the duty of these men to take a city with a depleted treasury and endeavor during their terms of office to record such economy and so increase the revenue that the chasm between revenue and expenditure may be bridged.

Mr. Crabtree and his associates really have a call to service and it must be acknowledged that they have little chance except to make a record for business efficiency and general municipal wisdom. But the task is not beyond accomplishment and a well known resident of Jacksonville last night voiced the feeling of a great many residents of the city when he said:

"I know the shattered condition of Jacksonville's finances—conditions which are paralleled in many other cities. But I do feel that Mr. Crabtree will enter upon the duties of mayor at a time when the people are united in thought and purpose in a way that has never been true before. I have for weeks past seen the signs of discontent—that is, discontent with the differences which in the past have impeded progress. Now there is a better feeling for united effort than ever before."

"The water project is only one of a number of things in which there is a generally united public opinion. While I know that the task which faces the city council is indeed difficult, I hold sincerely to the belief that the administration will start out with a more strongly united public sentiment behind it than has ever been true at a previous time. Thus the prospect is bright, and knowing Mr. Crabtree's tact, his willingness to serve, his business ability, I feel sure that he is not starting upon a task impossible of accomplishment; and I feel that he will finish a two year term which will be beneficial to the city and add something to his own good record."

The large majority given to R. L. Pratt for city clerk cannot fail to be gratifying to him. While serving as clerk Mr. Pratt has made an excellent record for unfailing courtesy and for the efficient manner in which he has conducted the affairs of his office. Altho a candidate on the Democratic ticket, it was evident from the vote that he was the choice of both Republicans and Democrats for the office to which he has been elected. Mr. Slater is not generally known thruout the city altho he is a man of the highest character and wholly competent.

When John A. Bellatti became a candidate for attorney it was because he felt the call to duty and was willing to make sacrifice for the city in a time of financial stress. If other citizens chose to take like action. His ability is of a long established kind. There is no question but that his name added largely to the strength of the no-salary program.

H. C. Clement as Republican candidate for city treasurer received a highly complimentary vote, expressing the confidence that the general public feels in him because of his record and character.

The group of aldermen includes men of worth and ability. Mr. McGinnis as member from the first ward, has had previous experience with city affairs and the knowledge acquired in this way will be useful to him now. Mr. Flynn of the first ward enjoys great popularity among his friends and both of the first ward aldermen can be counted as men who wish well for Jacksonville, so long their home city.

In the second ward Messrs. Graff and Williamson are citizens of very high standing. Both have the business experience which will give them value in council affairs during the next two years.

John D. Cain of the third ward is one of the most successful of the younger business men of Jacksonville and a man of fine character. His associate, George A. Moore, has long been a resident of the ward and for a number of years held a city position which gave him some experience in the water department. Both of the third ward aldermen have managed their own affairs well and give promise of excellent public service.

T. A. Chapin of the fourth ward has not previously taken much part in public affairs but has made a conspicuous success of the management of the extensive business which he was so instrumental in building up. Jacksonville is fortunate in having a man in the council with such technical skill and business experience. His associate from the ward is Charles F. Ehrie, another comparatively young business man who has had success on his own initiative and account. He, too, has the confidence of his constituents and has made a worth while record.

Altogether people have chosen officers and councilmen who give promise of entering earnestly into the task of doing the best things for the city.

NO NIGHT MARE HERE.

(From "The Liberty Bell.") There might be an excuse for a citizen of the United States to dislike to dig deep down in his pockets to give his financial aid to his Government were the money to be needed for a purpose such as will be needed in Germany to pay for one of the Kaiser's dreams that never came true.

Wilhelm believed he was going to win the world war. He was so sure of it that he caused to be made and stored at Coblenz several hundred thousand helmets. They were not of the common iron sort. They were made of burnished steel, that would give back the sun's rays as would a mirror. They were decorated with tassels and were works of art.

In his dream the Kaiser saw victory for the Hun hordes. He saw his elder son, the crown prince, entering the gates of Paris while all the world bowed the knee to the House of Hohenzollern.

But these helmets were never used for the purpose they were intended, for Mr. Common American had a dream too. He dreamed of the world as a decent place to live in, and he knew that this could not be until militaristic Germanism had been stamped out.

To make his dream come true, Mr. Common American dug deep in his pockets. He paid taxes willingly and bought Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps freely.

The money thus produced, amounting to many billions of dollars, organized an army the like of which the world had never seen. From the money thus raised this magnificent army was equipped in a manner that was a revelation to the Germans who fancied they had the last word in military machinery. More money was needed to train this army and transport it to France. More money was needed to ration and clothe it, and buy munitions. Mr. Common American produced all this money, and the army produced the result.

The Government still needs money to pay these bills and restore pre-war conditions. But there are no burnished helmets to pay for, nor no costly dreams of an obsessed, power crazed monarch to prove a burden.

The millions of Common Americans know it is up to them now to finish the job. To date it is the most glorious job ever accomplished, and they will finish it by over-subscribing the Victory Liberty Loan.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

Willyum.
I haven't heard of Kronprinz Willy for long, long weary weeks, no doubt he's sitting, sad and silly, with tears upon his cheeks, and thinking of the days departed when he was blithe and buoyant hearted, and when he danced and choo-chooed with other dippy dorks. I'm glad there seems no disposition to push him to the front, to use his punk, forlorn conditions, as theme for movie stunts; no lecture bureau seems to want him, and chaunt-quas wildly haunt him, nor do the sideshow magnates haunt him, with offers of much blunt. No manager will bring him hither, to make a goodly pile; we're all inclined to let him wither, on his damp misty isle; and if the sea should overflow him, or if a rampant wind should blow him so that his father wouldn't know him, we still shall sing and smile. By all the busy world forgotten, he walks besides the sea, and doubtless thinks his fate is rotten and doubtless sighs, "Oh, chee!" Imprisoned is the restless rover; his limelight days are done and over; he cuts no grass, puts up no clover; 'tis well, as you'll agree.

Funerals

Million.
The funeral of William Million was held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Murrayville, in charge of Rev. Roy Marsh and interment made in the new cemetery. The bearers were Monroe Jennings, H. F. Garfield, David Stansfield, C. B. Clarkson, J. W. Fanning and Jephtha Whitlock. A quartet composed of Mrs. McGee, Mrs. Short, Miss Cunningham, Miss L. Short, with Mrs. Nettie Million, accompanist, furnished the music. The Modern Woodmen had charge of the services at the grave.

Daniel.
The funeral of Mrs. Sarah A. Daniel was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter Mrs. W. R. Huckleby, on West State street. Mrs. Daniel, who was far advanced in years, had long made her home with her daughter here in Jacksonville and because of infirmities of age lived a somewhat secluded life. Bronchial pneumonia was the cause of her death.

The funeral service was in charge of Dr. A. A. Todd, pastor of the Baptist church, where the deceased had long held membership. The minister took as his text: "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain." The often quoted words of the Apostle Paul spoken when he was in prison. Dr. Todd drew useful lessons from this text and then spoke words of appreciation of Mrs. Daniel's character, based upon his observance of her life and recent conversations with her.

At the close of the impressive house service the cortege moved from the home to Diamond Grove cemetery. There were many beautiful flowers and they were cared for by Misses Katherine Barr and Hazel Bell Long. The bearers were Messrs. Ensley Moore, Joseph Shreve, E. B. Wiswell, C. H. Ward, L. B. Turner and Dr. G. H. Kopper.

EXPRESSES THANKS
As the people no doubt generally understood, I was unable to make any pre-election canvass because of illness from which I have not yet recovered. Especially in view of this fact I am deeply appreciative of the decisive vote given me in the election Tuesday. I fully realize that the vote cast for me was without party distinction, and it will be my earnest endeavor as city clerk to discharge the duties in a way to show myself worthy of the confidence of the people of Jacksonville. So at this time I want to thank the men and women of Jacksonville for the vote given me Tuesday, and at the same time to express my thanks for the many and varied courtesies extended during my illness.

A BOY IN POLITICS
That was a fine showing that several of the successful candidates made in Precinct 11 out on South Church street. They owe a part at least of their success to a very young precinct worker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Spaulding, aged five. This little lad was just outside the flag line at the polls nearly all day and no one approached who did not receive from him a marked sample ballot, showing his favorites. Master Spaulding is certainly "some politician."

The Queen of All Gems

Historical: "The Diamond makes the wearer courageous"

"In this country there were very few diamonds before 1848."

"When our friends show us stones that they believe have been 'in their families' since colonial times—or mayhap 'were brought over in the olden times'—we must take the statement with a grain of salt."

"There actually were fine diamonds owned by the Livingstons, the Thornes, Alstons, Rutledges, Masons, Adames and De Peaus as many as 100 years ago, but they were far from abundant."

If you are making a birthday gift, this month, let it be something containing a diamond. You will be astonished to find how reasonably diamond set gift articles can be purchased. It will be a pleasure to show our stock.

Birthday Surprise.

Saturday being the forty-fifth anniversary of the birth of Thomas McNeely, his wife decided to give him a reminder of the fact and choose the following day, Sunday, April 13. To say he was surprised is putting it mildly, but he soon made himself very agreeable and all enjoyed the day immensely. At noon a sumptuous dinner was served to which he did ample justice. The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McNeely, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McNeely, and daughter, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McNeely and daughter, Ollie; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McNeely, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper McNeely and children, John and Mabel; Mr. and Mrs. Lon McNeely and son, Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitlock and children, Ethel and Robert Lee; Miss Georgia Lashmet, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McNeely and daughter, Ruby.

How Large an Estate Warrants Trust Company Service?

A large estate needs trust company facilities because of the variety and magnitude of its interests. So many kinds of expert service can be found only in a well-equipped Trust Department.

The small estate needs trust company service because losses are more seriously felt and expert individual attention is more difficult to obtain at a price which the estate can afford.

Both small and large estates are accepted by this company. There is no reason why a small estate should not enjoy the full protection afforded by a trust company.

We invite conference with men of property in regard to their estates.

CAN COLLECT TAXES
FROM RAILROADS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 15.

Local taxes assessed against railroads can be collected, despite the contention of the United States government that the roads are federal property and exempt from such levies, the supreme court held late today in the suit of the Wabash railroad company against the Cook county board of reviews. Litigation arose over the assessment by the board working capital or cash on hand of the railroad company.

"We understand," says the decision written by Justice Farmer, "the taking over of the property and control of the railroads by the federal government was a temporary war measure and that they did not thereby become instruments or agencies of the government for the purpose of carrying into effect powers of the government conferred by the people, at least, to the extent that their property was not subject to taxation by the states."

NEW CITY OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN CHSENINTERESTING RESULTS IN TUESDAY'S CITY ELECTION.

E. E. Crabtree Elected Mayor By Handsome Majority — Others on No-Salary Platform Also Won—A Clean Cut Contest.

City Officers Elected
Mayor: Edgar E. Crabtree.
City Clerk: Richard L. Pyatt.
City Attorney: John A. Bellatti.
City Treasurer: H. C. Clement.

Aldermen:
First Ward—Thomas, Flynn, Michael McGinnis.
Second Ward—C. B. Graff, A. E. Williamson.
Third Ward—John D. Cain, George A. Moore.
Fourth Ward—T. A. Chapin, Charles F. Ehnie.

The election yesterday did not have all the outward signs of activity that have marked some previous election events. But nevertheless 4,289 persons cast ballots in selecting a mayor to serve during the coming term. The choice of the people at the election in the sixteen precincts of the several wards Tuesday is indicated in the names above.

Mr. Crabtree was elected by a majority of 2,132. This vote by comparison with the majority of 1,333 given for R. L. Pyatt whose name appeared on the Democratic ticket, gave proof of the way in which voters have learned to scratch ballots. There has been a growing independence in both city and county elections during recent years and the straight party ballot is now rather the exception than the rule. Mr. Knollenberg, Democratic candidate for mayor had a very popular opponent and also faced a normal Republican majority.

Mr. Bellatti's majority as candidate for city attorney was 1,674, while that of H. C. Clement for treasurer was 2,256. It will be remembered that W. H. Slater, Republican candidate for city clerk, Miss Tillie Hairgrave, Democratic candidate for treasurer, did not take part in the primary election. A few friends happened to cast ballots for them in the primary and they thus automatically became the party nominees. Mr. Slater, altho a competent man and experienced in many ways, is not widely known in Jacksonville and the fact that he was not a candidate in the primary also mitigated against him.

Miss Hairgrave was not an aggressive candidate and Mrs.

Tandy made public announcement of the fact that she did not wish to hold the office.

There was naturally more interest in the first and third wards of the city than in the second and fourth because of the sharp partisan contests in the east part of the city. In the first ward Thomas Flynn had the heavy vote, leading his running mate, Michael McGinnis, by just eight votes. These two Democrats won handsily from J. W. Baptist who received 367 votes, and Herbert C. White, who received 277.

In the third ward the contest was in doubt all day long and the final figures showed that John D. Cain had the highest vote, of 590 leading his running mate, George A. Moore, by 30 votes. Edward Lonergan was the high man of the two Democrats, having 529 votes while Alexander Platt polled a total of 446.

In the second ward H. E. Frye had been Democratic candidate in the primary and Richard Vasey received a few votes from friends which made him a nominee. Neither of these men made an active campaign. A. E. Williamson Republican had a vote of 830, with his running mate, Charles B. Graff, was a close second with 800.

In the heavily Republican fourth ward C. F. Ehnie had 1,072 votes, a lead of 9 over T. A. Chapin, who had 1,063. J. M. Hurst, the only Democratic nominee for alderman in the fourth ward, received 85 votes.

Altogether it was a clean, orderly contest, with nothing but good feeling on all sides.

Our Conscientious Objectors

There are people living in this town, you know them I surmise; who object to everything on earth, also the sun and skies.

As yet I haven't heard them say a word against the moon, but you can bet your last kopeck you'll hear them very soon. They'll want to plant their 'taters and will yell because its light, they want to plant them in the dark so they won't take the blight.

Nothing ever suits them, they're always hunting ways and means to find out just exactly who it was that spilled the beans.

They hold a meeting now and then to find the reason why, after all the knocking they have done, the dern'd old town don't die.

I hope some great big husky guy will take the whole caboodle outside the city limits, and tap them on the noodle.

Your attention for just a minute! In behalf of the company, I wish to thank you for your kind attention and liberal patronage. Remember we give an entire change of program each week. If you like the show, tell your friends. If you don't, well, you have our consent to join the Conscientious Objectors.

I do wish to announce that any one needing Accessories or supplies for their autos will find the very best at Skinner's Supply Store, 211 South Sandy St.

Thanking you again, we will conclude the entertainment with a one act farce entitled, "Golf Bugs Don't Have Wings."

Next week something about Hamlet. Don't fail to see it.

Yours truly,

JACK.

J. S. TREASURER BURKE
HEARD TUESDAY NIGHT

Former Governor of North Dakota
Gave Address on Liberty Loan
—E. E. Crabtree Mayor-Elect
and State Auditor Russell
Speakers.

A fine audience heard with pleasure and profit the lecture last night at Central Christian Church by Gov. Burke of North Dakota and now treasurer of the United States.

The meeting was called to order by Rev. M. L. Pontius who said it was under the auspices of the Triangle club an organization of youths who were members of the church and desired to gather in all like themselves who were not members of some other church or congregation. Sincere social fellowship was their aim and they wrought faithfully.

He then introduced the president, Lawrence Henderson and turned the meeting over to him. The young man in taking the chair paid a glowing compliment to the worthy pastor for his valuable support and work in the past and promise of the future. He then introduced Herbert Henderson who led in singing "America" most heartily and then he presented E. E. Crabtree, the next mayor. The gentleman was received with loud cheers, the people standing in a grand ovation.

Mayor-Elect Crabtree Talks.

He said in part I thank you most sincerely for your grand reception. I am especially glad to be introduced by a young man and I am grateful for the confidence shown me. Six months ago I should have called a man crazy if he had told me I would be a candidate for an office but men change their minds.

This has been a peculiar campaign. No money was spent and no workers regularly employed. I have made no pledges whatever and my effort will be to give the city all I can, not to get. It is easy to find fault but I hope at the end of my term to have as many friends as I have now altho Mr. Rodgers holds up his hands depreciatingly.

I feel sure Morgan county will do its duty in the matter of new loan and I trust all will heartily support Mr. Capps in his arduous work. I hope you will get under the work the first day and not the last. We know what the war cost. We had guns, ammunition to make and had gas so deadly the French asked us not to use it till we reached the soil of the enemy. And had the war gone on another year there would have been no German army to surrender. Now these things must be paid for. I thank you sincerely for your confidence and kindness.

State Auditor Russell.

With highly complimentary remarks Hon. Andrew Russell was introduced as the man to present Gov. Burke. Mr. Russell said Gov. Burke had been three times chosen governor of Republican North Dakota though he was a Democrat. It was his business to go about the land and explain the new loan and aid in its subscription and he felt sure Morgan county would do its share.

Gov. Burke was received with hearty applause and said in brief: I am glad to be introduced by the head of the Triangle club for it is good to see young men starting out right in life.

He said it was not really necessary to come to the state of Illinois to spur people to their duty but to see how they do it and then tell others. He had visited a portion of Texas during the last loan drive and found a part where they had had no rain for two years and he felt ashamed to ask them for anything and said so but they went over the top and doubtless would do so again.

Land would always be high here for Uncle Sam has no more loan to give away and arid land to be irrigated can never compete with the soil of Illinois and Iowa.

Great Cost of War.

He explained how this had been an especially costly war. Germany had made all possible preparations for it long before and it had been going on three years when we began and prices had soared to war standards and we had to pay them. Through intrigue Bismarck had precipitated the Franco Prussian war and had annexed Alsace and Lorraine on which the Germans had long cast greedy eyes.

Germany had ruthlessly laid waste Belgium and France; had taken prisoners the able men and sent them to work like slaves for German masters; had sent submarines to sink vast numbers of ships and contents enormous and we had to supply the allies with means and had loaned them nine billions equal to $17,100 tons of gold, probably more than any one here ever had at one time, (laughter) and if needed we would have sent five times as much.

Yet that nine billions really remained here for it was paid us for our supplies.

Must Work in Harmony.

A great part of the money was for farm products and now the farmers should subscribe liberally to the loan. The war found us wholly unprepared yet in 18 months we raised, trained and officered an army of two million men a mighty achievement and about it was thrown a grand moral atmosphere. All this has been accomplished, our prosperity is great and the bill must and should be paid.

The conditions abroad are in a fearful state and we must stand together. There is no telling what may take place on the other side and it is all important that all the nations of the world stand together and see to it that there is not again a great world war.

This is an opportune time for such an agreement for in the condition of the allies they will make better terms for us than at another time and let me say right here that had Germany won over the allies her next move would have been right over here and it would go pretty hard to pay a huge indemnity to Germany instead of paying the cost of conquering her. If the peace of the World is accomplished it will be worth the cost awful as it is and I pray the U. S. flag will ever be the emblem of liberty and peace.

AUTO DASHED INTO BUGGY

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carter were in an automobile accident Tuesday night as they drove from their home south of the city into Jacksonville. They passed two racing automobiles near Michigan avenue on South Main and a few hundred yards further to the north two more cars came dashing along. One of these struck the buggy in which Mr. and Mrs. Carter were riding and crushed the left front wheel. The horse started to run but Mr. Carter was fortunate in being able to stop it. The car drivers did not stop to make inquiry as to the amount of damage done. Fortunately neither Mr. or Mrs. Carter were injured, tho they were badly shaken up. Mr. Carter is with good reason now joining in the protest against fast driving on Jacksonville's paved streets.

Mr. Crabtree is one of the busiest men in the city but has the name of never slighting a task that he undertakes. His only pay as chief executive of the city will be the satisfaction which may come in helping to better conditions in this city, always his home. Jacksonville people believe in Mr. Crabtree and his ability to work with the board of council men in a continuous "for Jacksonville" program.

BAPTIST CHURCH CONFERENCE

A conference of the teachers of First Baptist church was held Tuesday night at the church parlors. Stacy is here on an eight day leave of absence, but Mrs. Stacy and daughter will remain in the city. Lieut. Camp Grant is one of the main demobilization camps and the base hospital there will of course be maintained as long as troops are arriving for discharge.

A SHAMEFUL DEED

Yesterday a boy with a gun killed an innocent robin. The Journal is authorized by a responsible man to say that two dollars will be paid for information which will lead to the arrest and punishment of this person. If he cannot be found the same man will pay two dollars to the first person who will supply information which will result in the conviction and punishment of a person wantonly killing a bird contrary to law.

The sentiment generally is in favor of the birds which are getting quite tame and shooting them is absolutely shameful and should be punished most severely.

VISITING FRIENDS

Joseph E. Vogel, who has been at Our Savior's hospital for nearly two weeks past, is out again and after a brief visit with friends expects to go to Detroit, Mich., where he has a position awaiting him. Mr. Vogel was recently released from the army service.

TREES WERE PLANTED AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Impressive Ceremonial Took Place There Tuesday Morning—Class of 1919 Responsible For Program.

The tree planting exercises by the class of 1919 were held at the chapel here Tuesday morning. A chorus of seniors sang "Vice of the Woods" after melody in F. by A. Rubinstein, and "Bright Summer," words by Leigh Hunt music by Charlie Vincent. Miss Mary McGhee presided at the organ with Miss Mabel Weiss at the piano.

President Harker congratulated the class on the spirit which prompted the planting of a tree. He divided humanity into three classes. The first class lives in the past and enjoys the shade of trees but unconcerned about the future. The second class lives only in the present, oblivious to the future, sits under the spreading boughs and says "how cold it is." The third class is represented by the Seniors, who enjoy the shade of trees planted by previous generations, but recognizes a debt to posterity, accordingly trees are planted which the people of tomorrow will enjoy.

Dr. Harker expressed a strong wish that each member of the class might live long enough to see the 1919 tree grow so tall that it could not be climbed and so wide that the arm could not encircle it.

Following the chapel exercises the Seniors in cap and gown led the college to the front campus, where the elm was planted. Miss Mary Whiteside of Carrollton, Illinois, president of the class, expressed the desire to leave a growing thing as an expression of the love and affection of the senior class for I. W. C.

Miss Whiteside said: "We, the class of 1919, desire to express our love for and faith in our college by leaving here, as a part of ourselves, a tree. We believe that that is the finest and best tribute we could bring for it has life, spirit, and is therefore, divine. Joyce Kilmer tried to compare a tree with what he considered the most inspired of man-made creations, but his conclusion was only wonder.

"I think that I shall never see A poem lonely as a tree— A tree whose hungering mouth is pressed

Against the sweet earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day And lifts its leafy arms to pray; A tree that may in summer wear A nest of robins in her hair; Upon whose bosom snow has lain; Who intimately lives with rain. Poems were made by fools like me,

But only God can make a tree." Then taking the spade which bears the class colors of all classes since '99, Miss Whiteside placed rich soil about the roots of the tree. Each senior in turn did the same.

Miss Louise Reed of Tulsa, Oklahoma recited "He Who Plants a Tree" by Lucy Larcom. The lines follow:

Arbor day means more than the mere planting of a tree, for it carries a deep moral significance; for in the words of Lucy Larcom:

He who plants a tree

Rootlets up there fibers dimly grope,

Leaves stretch out into horizons free;

So Man's life must climb From the clouds of time

Into Heavens sublime. Can't thou prophecy, thou little tree What the glory of thy roots may be?

He who plants a tree Plants joy. Plants a comfort, that will never cloy.

Each day a fresh reality, Beautiful and strong, To whose boughs shall throng Creatures blithe with songs Oh couldn't thou but know, thou happy tree Of the bliss that shall inhabit thee!

He who plants a tree Plants peace. Under its green curtains, fargons cease, Leaf and zephyr murmur soothingly While shadows, soft with sleep Down tired eyelids creep; Balm of slumber deep. Never hast thou dreamed thou blessed tree Of the benediction thou shalt be!

He who plants a tree Plants youth.

Vigor won for centuries in sooth. Life of time, that hints eternity, Boughs their strength appear. New shoots every year On old growths appear. Thou shalt teach the ages sturdy tree Youth of soul is immortality.

He who plants a tree He plants love.

Tents of coolness spreading out above

Wayfarers he may not live to see. Gains that grow are best,

Plant; life does the rest, Heaven and Earth helps him who plants a tree

And his work its own reward shall be.

Students and faculty surrounded the three singing the foliose song "By Stately Elms Surrounded."

MRS. BAPTIST KILLED BY WABASH TRAIN

Aged Resident of City Struck at Diamond Street Crossing—Inquest Held.

The death of Mrs. Frances Baptist occurred at the Wabash crossing on North Diamond street about 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, when she was struck by a freight train and instantly killed. The deceased, who was nearly seventy-five years of age, is understood to have been going north on Diamond street and was bending over and leaning on a cane. She evidently did not see or hear the approaching train, as the testimony at the coroner's inquest indicated that she walked squarely in front of it when the locomotive was not more than ten or fifteen feet from her.

The jury, impaneled by Coroner Rose to hear the evidence included W. A. Masters, foreman, W. E. Smith, J. A. Crum, Charles DeSilva, Howard Woodman and Walter DeShara, clerk. They returned a verdict finding that Mrs. Baptist came to her death by being struck by Wabash local train No. 72, engine 853, eastbound in charge of Conductor A. A. Suits of Springfield. We find that the railroad company did not take due precaution in protecting the crossing.

Trainmen Testified.

The jury heard the testimony of Conductor Suits, W. C. Logan, Engineer L. B. Dickason, brakeman and Frank Fernandez, foreman of the water department. In his testimony Conductor Suits said that he saw Mrs. Baptist start across the street when the train was about twelve feet from her. The conductor said he shouted loudly, the bell was ringing and the whistle blowing, but that she did not seem to hear and altho she looked toward the train, gave no evidence of noting its approach. The conductor said: "I saw her coming toward the track and she appeared to be in a hurry. We were running about ten miles an hour and were not carrying full tonnage. The pilot of the engine was just over the west side of the crossing when the deceased started across on the east side. We were slowing down to head in. There was no flagman at the crossing. The train went about four or five car lengths after it struck Mrs. Baptist. There was nothing the engineer could do to avoid the accident as the deceased was so near at hand. I was riding right behind the engineer at the time of the accident."

The other trainmen told practically the same story. As soon as the train could be stopped the mangled body was picked up and Dr. A. M. King was summoned. He arrived promptly but life was extinct and the remains were removed to the Reynolds undertaking rooms.

Some Life Facts.

Mrs. Baptist, who was the widow of the late Joaquin Baptist, resided with her son, George Baptist, at 754 Freedman street. The son indicated that his mother had defective hearing and that she probably failed to either hear or see the train. The surviving children are Mrs. Ellen Donaldson, Washington street; Mrs. Lillian Sardinia 977 North Prairie street; Mrs. Fred Crawley, Detroit Mich.; George and Joseph Baptist of this city.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

The latter car had a front axle bent and several springs broken. The truck had a tire punctured and the lights smashed. The truck was driven by Mr. Birdsell's daughter. The accident occurred at the corner of West and Morgan streets.

BREAK GROUND FOR ELI BRIDGE PLANT

Many Business Men Spectators at Interesting Ceremonial Tuesday.

Ground was broken for the plant of the Eli Bridge Co. at 1:40 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, with a group of citizens standing about. W. E. Sullivan, president of the company, drove from Roodhouse to Jacksonville, accompanied by other officials of the company, and with spade in hand broke ground along the west side of the site of the large building that is to house the equipment of the company. As Mr. Sullivan worked with his spade Mayor Rodgers and T. M. Tomlinson held the American flag as a background while Otto Speith took a photograph of the entire group.

The party which came from Roodhouse for this interesting ceremonial included Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan; Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Sullivan and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Sullivan and daughter, Miss Leta Sullivan; Mrs. Amy Darnley of Roodhouse, and J. E. Shearer of California, who is a relative of the Sullivans and is there on a visit.

When the arrangements were made for the coming of this company to Jacksonville John J. Reeve was the president of the Chamber of Commerce and a committee from the chamber of commerce had the matter in hand. Nearly all of the members of this original committee, among them Henry Frisch and M. R. Fitch, were present. S. G. Chumley, who has the contract for the excavating, and J. K. C. Pierson, architect for the building, were also present. A very few in the interested group realized until they saw the stakes what a large building this is to be. The general dimensions will be 285 by 150 feet and as already indicated, it will be a structure of steel and concrete. There will be no general contract for the whole building and the construction will be by separate contracts under the direction of Architect Pierson.

Jacksonville people are glad indeed that this plant is now soon to be a reality for it will mean employment for a considerable group of men and in addition to this fact the managers of the Eli plant are men of a type to make excellent citizens and the city is glad indeed to welcome them to the social and commercial fellowship of Jacksonville.

An excellent idea of the extent of the building can be gained from some facts about the quantities of steel that will be used in the work of construction. The forty-five posts which will support the great roof would have a total length of 855 feet if laid end to end. They will weigh 31,355 lbs. or 15.68 tons. The fifty-four beams which join these posts together at the roof make a total of 1350 lineal feet, 33,750 lbs. or 16.875 tons. The fifty-four beams supporting the beams already mentioned will have a total length of 1,350 lineal feet and a weight of 42,525 lbs. or 21.26 tons.

When it comes to the 333 roof beams proper there is still greater weight and length, for placed together they would extend a distance of 8,325 feet. Their weight would be 124,875 lbs. or 62.44 tons, and a still better idea of the amount of material is gained from the statement that if all this steel should be put together and placed end to end it would reach a distance of 2 1/4 miles and the total weight 232,525 lbs. or 116.25 tons. The posts and ten inch tie beams will amount to 3,555 lineal feet, with a weight of 107,650 lbs. or 53.82 tons.

The venerable George Wood, proprietor of the stock farm in Franklin precinct was riding horseback yesterday morning when he was either thrown from his horse or the animal fell on him. He was found badly injured, a rib broken, head cut and foot smashed. Aid was summoned as soon as possible. He will be laid up for some time. His son Milton and wife will go out today.

The Function of The Standard Oil Company (Indiana)

THE Standard Oil Company of Indiana is a great service organization whose chief function is to serve the public well by buying crude oil wherever it may be obtained; by refining it into numberless products, useful, helpful, and necessary to the well-being of the world, and by distributing these products widely, so that they shall be instantly available to the consumer wherever he may live.

Refineries and bulk storage, occupying thousands of acres and representing a cash investment of tens of millions of dollars, are required, to keep the flow of products steady.

Distributing centers from which Standard Oil products are delivered to individual customers are maintained at more than four thousand points in eleven states.

Thousands of motor trucks, which deliver the products to our customers, round out the most complete distribution system in the world.

In addition to these necessities, the Standard Oil Company maintains at all times sufficient additional equipment to meet any emergency. This was proved by the efficient work of the Company during the trying days of the great world war.

How United War Work Campaign Funds Were Distributed

There have been numerous requests for information about the exact distribution of the United War Work Campaign funds. Here are the official figures:

The original budget estimates and percentages of the organizations, as submitted to and approved by the war department, in connection with United War Work Campaign, organized at the request of President Wilson, were as follows:

Y. M. C. A. $100,000,000 58.65%

Y. W. C. A. 15,000,000 8.80%

J. W. C. S. 3,500,000 2.05%

W. C. C. S. 15,000,000 8.80%

Am. L. A. 3,500,000 2.05%

Sal. Army. 3,500,000 2.05%

$170,500,000 100.00%

Over Subscribed 24.8 Per Cent

As the time for the campaign drew near it became clear to the leaders of the seven co-operating organizations that a much greater sum than $170,500,000 would be required, if they were to render the full service to the soldiers and sailors which the American people wished rendered, and, therefore, with the approval of the war department and of President Wilson, the campaign committee appealed for a large over-subscription. There was a prompt and generous response. The total amount subscribed up to Dec. 31, 1918, was $205,180,793, or an over-subscription of 20.3 per cent, or counting the non-war chest area, an over-subscription of 24.8 per cent.

The armistice was signed the day the campaign began. After allowing a reasonable period to elapse, in order to study the new situation and its demands, the different organizations have carefully revised their budgets in the light of changed conditions. They were reviewed by the committee of 11 which had general responsibility for the campaign and have been approved by the war and navy departments of the government.

To explain why the full amount of the over-subscription will be used, John R. Mott, director general of the United War Work campaign says:

"Some subscribers to the fund have raised the question whether the full amount subscribed in the campaign will be required now that the war is over and that conditions have so greatly changed. On this point the leaders of the seven organizations, the committee of 11, the war and navy departments and the other military and naval authorities who have been consulted have no doubt. They are clear that the entire amount pledged in the campaign, including the over-subscription, is needed. Among the reasons for this conclusion are the following:

(1) Demobilization is proving to be a much slower process than was originally anticipated. The seven organizations are today serving more men in uniform than at the time the campaign was organized and the original budget announced.

(2) With the cessation of hostilities a larger welfare program, especially overseas, became necessary. The volume of recreational, physical, educational, and religious activities has been increased and should be further increased. The men have much more time on their hands. The military authorities are demanding that much more be done to meet the need. It should be remembered that it costs more to provide wisely for virtually all of the time of the men than for fragments of their leisure hours.

(3) Even after the soldiers and sailors are demobilized the vast majority of them will still be in uniform for three months and during this time or for a longer period will need the best service of these welfare agencies. Many things that in the cities, where so many of them congregated, the constructive help of these societies is more needed than ever."

Normal Activities Not Included
The objects or items of the budgets are confined to the soldiers and sailors and to certain other groups immediately affected by war conditions or munition workers and do not include the normal peace-time activities of the co-operating organizations.

The seven organizations have agreed that none of the money raised in the campaign shall be used for permanent structures or establishments of for endowment, with the exception of two buildings in Washington for the Young Women's Christian Association. At the request of the government these were included in the original budget presented by that organization in the campaign.

The committee of 11 with the co-operation of the heads of the various organizations are studying together how to avoid unnecessary and undesirable duplication in the expenditure of money and effort. For example, they have arrived at a general working agreement as to provide any new temporary buildings which may still be required, the different organizations each assuming responsibility for erecting a certain percentage of the total number.

All of the organizations have agreed to allow for contingencies the same proportion of their respective budgets, namely, 2 per cent of the total amount including over-subscription.

The seven organizations are co-operating under the terms of two agreements which provide for new budgets made with the co-operation of the war and navy departments in view of conditions since the signing of the armistice, for publicity in accounting, that expenditures shall be strictly limited to war purposes, and shall not include permanent structures or establishments or endowments, that funds as collected shall be distributed to the seven societies, that the committee of 11 is continued as a coordinating agency, and that each of the seven societies is responsible to the government and to the donors for its fulfillment of the agreement concerning expenditures here outlined.

JAMES F. GREEN
By Marie Roberts, aged 12;
Grade 7, David Prince School.
One of our friends has left us
Never more to return.
One of our friends have gone to heaven
For him our hearts shall yearn.
He had been sick for many a day
But did not complain to his wife.
And the Angels of God came and took him.
Carried him away from life.

Into a home far better than this.
Better than any earthly thing.
While the children of God shout his praises,
And Angels of the Lord do sing.

His home is sad and cheerless now.
They miss his smiling face;
And a pleasant word for one and all.
But he's gone to His Father's Place.

He has crossed the shadow of death.
And entered the pearly gates.
Just inside of God's happy home.
For his wife and children he'll wait.

But it is a comfort to know
That he's safe in His Father's arms.
And he'll know no sadness there
And sheltered from every harm.

"There can be no strong, healthy, beautiful, vigorous woman, without iron," says Dr. Fordham King, a New York physician and Medical Author. "I have strongly emphasized the fact that doctors should prescribe Nuxated Iron for their patients, run-down, weak, haggard-looking women, pale, listless, nervous, anemic. The sign of an anemic woman is that the bones ache, the muscles lack tone, the brain lags, the memory fails, and often they become irritable, nervous, and dependent and are in a hurry when the iron goes from the blood of women, the iron goes from their cheeks."

What Is Your Answer?

In the most common foods of America, starches, sugars, table syrups, candies, polished rice, white bread, soda crackers, macaroni, spaghetti, tapioca, sago, farina, degerminated cornmeal, no longer is iron to be found. Raining processes have removed the iron of Mother Earth from these impoverished foods, and silly methods of home cooking, by throwing down the waste pipe the water in which our vegetables are cooked, are responsible for another grave iron deficiency in your food by using some form of organic iron, just as you would use salt when your food has not enough salt."

people who were killing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form and this, after they had in some cases been going on for months without getting benefit from anything. But don't let the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or ferrous iron simply to save a few cents. The iron demanded by Mother Nature is the red coloring matter in the blood of children is, also, not that kind of iron. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless.

LITERBERRY M. E. SOCIETY MEETS

Mrs. Charles Clark of Arcadia Hostess to Members of Society Recently—Juniors of Baptist Church to Give Play Saturday—Other Notes

The Literberry M. E. Society met on Wednesday afternoon the 9th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark in Arcadia. This was a rainy afternoon and the faraway members were kept at home.

After the usual devotional exercises were over, the only business of note was the election of delegates to the Woman's Federation club, to be held at Beards-town the 21st and 22nd of May. The election resulted in the choice of the following ladies as delegates: Mrs. Earl Rexroat and Mrs. Claude Neil; alternates, Miss Ellen Deatherage and Mrs. McFillan. There was a good attendance and a very interesting meeting. The hostess served excellent refreshments; an offering was taken and the meeting closed. There was one new member added to the society.

Rev. Mr. Smith filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. The morning subject was, "The Lonely Path of the Impassable Cup," from the 26th chapter of Matthew, 36 to 43. The evening text was, "The Assurance of Eternal Life."

The Juniors of the Baptist church will give a nice little play on Saturday night as an entertainment in connection with the Easter cafeteria supper which will be held in the church basement. Everybody invited to attend. We drove to Grace chapel Sunday afternoon and were well repaid for our trip by hearing an uplifting and instructive sermon from Malachi 3-8-11, will a man rob God? etc., by Rev. C. A.

A. J. Streeter was born of French and English parents, March 31st 1826 near Syracuse, N. Y., and died April 2nd, 1919 at the age of ninety-three years and two days. His parents emigrated to Pennsylvania while he was very young living on a farm there until 1839, when they came to Iowa, and located at Davenport. In time, this family settled near Exeter, Ill., where A. J. was married in December 18, 1856 to Miss Margaret Elsdad Long, daughter of George Long of the Hopewell neighborhood six miles northwest of Concord.

The married life of this couple has been a very happy one for sixty-six years; they were a pattern for their children always being kind and affectionate to each other and living a happy sunny life. There were five children born to them, one daughter and four sons: John M., Mollie E., and Wm. A., all of whom preceded their father in death. Those living are George M. of Oklahoma and Rolvin B. of Indianapolis, and the wife who makes her home with the latter. There are ten great grandchildren and nineteen grandchildren.

A. J. Streeter was practically all his life a faithful member of the Christian church. His wife says of him "he never failed to go with his children to church every Sabbath as long as they were under his care."

Funeral services were held Friday April 12th in the afternoon at the Christian church in Indianapolis conducted by the Rev. F. E. Volek.

Mr. Streeter has many friends in Morgan and Cass counties, who will remember him as he was in years gone by.

OBITUARY

Emma S., the daughter of Michael and Mary C. Marshall, was born in Morgan county, Ill., August 8, 1850, and departed this life April 2, 1919, aged 58 years, 7 months and 24 days. She grew to young womanhood in Morgan county and in her early life united with the Baptist church. On Jan. 10, 1873 she was united in marriage to William Thompson of Scott county, Ill. To this union were born five children: Mrs. George Worrall of Thorn, North Dakota; Fred W. Thompson of Hartsville, Mo.; Mrs. Robert Stratton of Curlew, Iowa; Mrs. Edward Carrigan of Ayrshire, Iowa; Floyd B. Thompson of Plover, Iowa, all of whom survive their mother and were at her bedside at the time of her death.

In the year 1886 the deceased with her family removed to Iowa, settling near Laurence, Pocahontas county, and later removed to Plover, where she made her home until her death. She was a woman of many fine traits of character, always sympathetic and ready to aid her friends in time of need. Her going will mean a distinct loss to the community where for so many years she exerted a kindly influence.

Besides the children the deceased is survived by one brother, William W. Marshall of Oakland, and one sister, Mrs. John Carrigan. One sister, Mrs. Edwin Cahill of Council Grove, Kans., preceded her in death only a few months since. She is survived also by nineteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Among the relatives who attended the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. George Worrall and Mrs. John Worrall of Thorn, North Dakota; F. W. Thompson of Hartsville, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stratton of Curlew, Ia.; Mrs. Edward Carrigan and daughters of Ayrshire, Iowa; Mrs. Charles Kress, Misses Margaret and Lizzie Carrigan all of Ayrshire, Iowa, and Mrs. John Carrigan of Ft. Dodge, Iowa.

From County Agents Office

Farm Labor Scarce.

At the present time we have not a single application for a farm job on file. Inquiries at the U. S. Employment office at Chicago reveals a drift to the northwest. If the farm boys in the camps could be released all would be well. Where there is any reason for hoping for an early discharge, we suggest that application be made as soon as possible. Help will certainly be scarce at corn plowing.

Illinois Agricultural Association. In some counties the farmers have joined this with a rush. Every farm bureau member has made himself a committee of one to get a new member for the farm bureau and has landed him for the state organization as well. Vermillion county now has 979 farm bureau members. That is certainly a fine showing.

Invitation to Knife Experts. Last spring a great many farmers tested their seed corn by either the sand box or rag doll methods. Even then some farmers decided that corn would grow when it would only start to grow. What the farmer wants is corn that will not only start to grow, but that will push its way up thru the soil into the sunshine. The knife test will not show this. There are ten ears of corn under test in our office. Knife experts are invited to try their hands and compare their results with the germination tests.

A Brief Statement About Hudson Leadership

Automobile History That Motor Car Buyers Should Remember

Note these facts which prove Hudson Super-Six leadership. They are convincing reasons for its preference among all fine cars.

An exclusive type motor which so minimizes vibration that automobile endurance has been increased beyond previously known limits.

That was proved on the speedway, in hill climbs and in transcontinental touring. Official records accord the Hudson Super-Six first honor in nearly all worthwhile events.

For three years the Hudson Super-Six has led all fine cars in number of sales.

Its body types forecast the trend of motor car design. Note how cars at this year's auto shows reveal the influence of last year's Hudsons. Look for the new square lines of present Hudson models to be the generally accepted standard of the cars next fall.

Then think of the service your neighbor has had from his Hudson Super-Six. You must know many who own Hudsons. More than 60,000 are in use.

And don't forget that thousands have been disappointed each spring because there were not enough Hudsons to meet the demand. Open car production is off while closed cars to meet present demands are coming through. A few dealers have some open cars. Get one now, if you can, if that is the type you prefer. Otherwise you may have to wait longer than you want to.
